IN MEMORY OF DAVIS.

The last exercises conrected with the tenth annual reunion at Louisville, Ky., of the United Confederate Veterans occurred yesterday when the ninety-second anniversary of Jefferson Davis's birth was observed at Reunion Hall with services in memery of Mr.
Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," and the Confederate dead.
Although many of the reunion visitors had left the city, 5,000 persons attended the exercises.

tended the exercises.

Mrs. Addison Hayes, daughter of Jefferson Davis, and her daughter, Mis Varina Hayes, were on the platform. Gen. Stephen D. Lee presided. Gen. Clement A. Evans, of Georgis, said this day would always be observed by a liberty-loving people. Some States had made it a legal holiday. The southern people celebrated Jefferson Davis's birthday "because he was the first, the last, the present and the everfirst, the last, the present and the ever-lasting President of that now invisible republic known as the Confederate States of America."

Ex-Senator J. H. Reagan, of Texas, the only surviving member of the Confederate cabinet, said that probably not in the world's history had the sambonor been shown to a man who had represented an unsuccessful cause as had been shown to Jefferson Davis Judge Reagan told of Mr. Davis's spirit of sacrifice and said also that Mr. Davis was an earnest Christian.

Gen. Stephen D. Lee, as a friend of Mr. Davis, then paid him a tribute for "devotion to principle, exquisite couresy and a heart as tender as a woman's, notwithstanding the sternness of his life."

R-v. J. Wm. Jones, of Virginia, chap-lain-general of the United Confederate Veteraos, preached the annual sermon. He told the well-known incident at Spottsylvania when, after Hancock's charge, it seemed that the Army of Northern Virginia would be cut in two, and Gen. Robert E. Lee had ridden to the front as if to lead the charge of the Confederates. Gen. John B. Gordon, grasping the bridle of "Old Traveler," cried: "Men, is it necessary that Gen.
Lee lead this charge? You never have failed me; will you fail me now?" After the soldiers had replied with a cheer,
"Lee to the rear," Gen. Gordon said
"Charge, and remember that the eyes of your chief are on you." Here Rev. Mr. Jones applied his text, saying that the Confederate Veterans of the present time were compassed around with witnesses and that eyes were on them. He said he wished to pay special attention to the rank and file of the Confederate army, for he believed that the world had never seen such soldiers.

There was a parade of veterans 8, turreunion committee in calling off this festure because of rain on Friday, the day originally set for it. A number of veterans and several other organized bodie of men decided that they had come to Louisville to parade and they carried out their plan.

WEDDED A PRIEST SHE FLOGGED .-Emily Delaney, a young American di vorcee, who for the last two years bas been ruling the Fontainebleau artists colony in Paris, on Saturday married Father Beaunier, the priest whom she publicly cowhided a few weeks ago for repeating a bit of gossip about her and thereby dissuading a French cavalry officer from his purpose to marry her. When the priest went to apologize to Miss Delaney later he was smitten with her charms and ardently wooed and How to Cure a Sprain.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doc-tor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse, and the doctor then said I had rheumat sm. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Coamberiain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BABCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by all druggists.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grand mothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undi-gested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Giban.
